Every Child is Special

Help is Available!

If your child is having any of these problems, they may need the help of an experienced professional. An assessment will determine the best way to help your child. Treatment may include individual counseling, family counseling, group therapy, case management services or psychiatric services.

Every Child is Valuable

Growth and Change Can Happen!

LifeSpring's professionals can help you understand the causes, triggers and effects of emotional and behavioral problems on your child & your family. We can also help you learn how best to support your child so they have the opportunity to improve their future.
